The Licensee must comply with the Criminal Code of Canada, British Columbia's Gaming Control Act \(the Act\), Gaming Control Regulation, all other applicable federal, provincial and municipal laws, the Gaming Policy and Enforcement Branch's Licensed Charitable Gaming Rules \(the Rules\), policies and orders issued by GPEB, as well as any conditions listed on this licence.

Section 86(2) of the Gaming Control Act requires all licensees to notify GPEB's Investigations and Regional Operations division without delay regarding any conduct, activity or incident that may be considered contrary to the above noted law, regulation, and policies, or that may affect the integrity of gaming. Complaints about the conduct and management of gaming events may be submitted online at: Report of Wrongdoing

Review your licence in full and if any changes are required, please contact GPEB. Any changes must be approved in writing prior to the start of an event. Organizations must submit a written request to Gaming.Licensing@gov.bc.ca These requests must include the licence number, proposed changes and be from an individual listed on the application or a Board member of the organization.

Gaming events may only be conducted at the location, on the dates and at the times specified on this licence.

Licensees are strongly encouraged to review the Rules to ensure they understand their roles and responsibilities.

This licence is subject to the following conditions:

- Minors: This licence has been issued with the understanding that your organization will comply with Section 17.4 of the Licensed Charitable Gaming Rules. A licensee must not allow minors to: Participate as a player or worker; purchase entry (entry must not be sold to a person under the age of 19); and sell on behalf of the organization.
- Advertising: This gaming event licence has been issued with the understanding that all advertising and marketing must comply with Section 17 of the Licensed Charitable Gaming Rules. Licensees must meet all advertising and marketing standards, which include ensuring promotional materials do not use minors to promote gambling, except as permitted in advertising using minors, are not directed primarily to minors, factually report the chances or odds of winning and include the gaming event licence number (e.g., BC Gaming Event Licence #123456).
- Tickets: Bearer tickets or commercially printed tickets are usually rolls of double-printed tickets in varying colours. Bearer tickets may only be used when the draw is conducted on the same day that tickets are sold, at a single location. Ticket buyers must be present to claim their prize. If a ticket holder is not present to claim the prize during the draw, additional ticket stubs or counterfoils must be drawn until the prize is awarded, as outlined under Section 11.8 of the Licensed Charitable Gaming Rules.
- Tickets: Custom printed tickets are required where any ticket sales period exceeds one day. Tickets must be prepared and include the required information, as outlined under Section 11.9 of the Licensed Charitable Gaming Rules.
- Prizes: Details of advertised prizes must be consistent with the prizes approved on the licence. Prize descriptions should provide enough detail for the winner to make an informed decision.

- ERS Management & Conduct: This licence is approved with the understanding that events will be conducted and managed in compliance with Section 12 of the Licensed Charitable Gaming Rules.
- The licensee has approval to use Online Ticket Sales, Online Ticket Distribution, Electronic Ticket Draw (RNG) systems and Raffle Sales Units (RSU) using services provided by Ascend FS.

It is mandatory that all licensees complete a Gaming Event Revenue Report (GERR) within 90 days of the licence end date. GERRs must be submitted using the Gaming Online Service at [Report Search \(gov.bc.ca\)](http://Report Search (gov.bc.ca)) A step-by-step guide is available on the GPEB website: Gaming Event Revenue Report Online Submission Guide

You have the right to submit a written reply to any conditions listed above within 30 days from the receipt of this licence.
